Chairman's Message

As the founder and CEO of Silver Star am committed to lead our organization and continue to exceed our clients' needs and expectations by sticking to our core values. We have been honored to work with some of the best general contractors, architects and designers in the industry .

One of the primary differentiating factors our company have, compare with the rest in the industry is the level support, and we as owners provide our team. As a locally-owned company, we are not driven solely by profit, rather we are dedicated to delivering what the client actually needs. Reputation and reliability to us is more important than profit.

I am confident that we will continue to be the preferred ceiling and specialty contractor and have some fun doing it. Life is too short not to enjoy the work we do every day.

Your respectfully
